

Table of Contents

Introduction	7
Method or the next step:
From Existential toward Social Phenomenology	35
Chapter One: Sociality: The I and the Other	53
1.1. Ontology and/or ethics. Is ontology fundamental?	53
1.2. How to think humanitas of homo humanus ?	58
1.3. Subjectness.....	67
1.4. Time and death	86
a) Existential Time	87
b) Historical time	90
c) Eschatological Time	96
1.5. In the beginning was the Word ... with the Other.....	101
1.6. Heidegger and Levinas on the path to language	109
a) Martin Heidegger.....	109
b) Emmanuel Levinas.....	113
c) Heidegger and/or Levinas.....	119
Chapter Two: The Other and the Third One	125
2.1. The Third One.....	125
2.2. The Ethical and the Political. Justice and the State	147
2.3. Kant and Levinas on the Categorical Imperative.....	175
2.4. Paul Ricoeur on justice— virtue and institution. Revision from Levinas' perspective.	188
2.5. Jean-François Lyotard: prescription, description and norm....	195

Chapter Three: From the Command to the Norm	211
3.1. Replacing the prescription (the command, the order, the appeal) with the norm	211
3.2. The neo-liberal notion of justice	224
3.2. The Communitarian notion of justice	236
Conclusion.....	245
Index.....	255